

Why Trane?

Spine Fin Coil - exclusive to Trane

contains thousands of tiny fins bonded to continuous aluminum refrigerant tubing, creating greater surface area, helping with heat transfer.

Furnace Stainless Steel Heat Exchanger to withstand higher temperatures, and resists corrosion, All S9V2 have Lifetime Limited Warranty on heat exchanger, and 10 year limited warranty on internal functional parts.

S9V2 furnaces have both primary and secondary stainless steel heat exchangers for durability.

Every Trane product is packed with high-quality components. Each helps ensure that time after time, your unit will provide total comfort your family can rely on.
